St. Patrick's Day.

The entertainment given at the opera house on Monday evening by home talent was one of the most successful events, financially and otherwise, of the season. Long before the time for the opening of the evening's entertainment every seat in the spacious opera house was occupied, standing room below was filled and chairs were brought in to accommodate as many as possible. The address of Rev. Father Gleason, on the "Character of St. Patrick and the Irish People," was closely followed by the large audience, and was certainly an able effort. The gentleman is a very pleasant and convincing speaker and has the faculty of holding the attention of his hearers. The address was spoken very highly of by all. The drama "Waiting for the Verdict" followed, and it was presented in a manner highly pleasing to the audience and with credit to the parties who participated in the play. It would be impossible for us to speak of each character separately on account of space. The musical part of the programme was fine and the singers were repeatedly encored. The amount realized out of the entertainment was something over $350.

The District Court.

Court opened in this city on Monday with Judge Mills on the bench. The entire week has been consumed in the trial of the Hefferson cases against the Northern Pacific company, and only one case besides those has been tried. The first case, which was by Patrick Hefferson for damages incident to the care and expenses of his son, who was rendered totally blind by an accident at the shops, and the jury assessed his damages at $3,000. The second case has been on trial the past two days, in which suit is brought for $50,000 by the guardian of the boy, and the case has gone to the jury.

The case against Joseph Tift, who was charged with receiving a quantity of stolen brass and copper, was the first tried and resulted in a verdict of not guilty.

The grand jury was in session only two days, the result of their work being three indictments, one against Peter Hanson for murder in the first degree, one against Geo. Reid, for assault in the second degree, and one against Malcolm McLaren for assault in the second degree.

Court will probably be adjourned to-morrow night until some time in April, unless some arrangement can be made by Judge Mills to remain and finish up the calendar which is quite lengthy.

Thieves and Thugs.

On Wednesday night W. J. & H. D. Powers' hardware store was entered by thieves who went through the stock of cutlery and revolvers, helping themselves to what they wanted in that line. The value of the stolen property was about $25.

Joe Wilson's grocery was burglarized on Thursday morning early, the thieves getting $1.05 from the till. They effected an entrance through a back window.

On Wednesday night an unphoned Swede was invited to take in and paint the town with three fellows and their steps were directed toward the "red lights" in the vicinity of the wagon bridge. After walking around awhile the fellow, according to his story, was unceremoniously assaulted and knocked insensible. When he came to his senses he found his pockets turned inside out and $4.25 was gone. He was also cut in two places on the face and one of the gashes required five stitches to bring it together. There is no clue to the parties who did the job.

Labor Meeting.

On Sunday next, March 23d, Hon. Thomas H. Lucas, of Minneapolis, will speak at Miller's Hall, in the afternoon at three o'clock, and in the evening at 7:30. The gentleman is recognized all over the northwest as an able speaker and one who thoroughly understands the labor question, and the meetings cannot fail to be interesting and instructive. The public is invited to attend.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.

Charlie Searles and Wm. Paine, Jr., held for the crime.

In April, 1889, the Northern Pacific Express company was robbed of $15,000, the money being taken from the company's safe in their office at a depot in this city. The money was part of the gold sent by the company to pay their employees in Brainerd, and arrived on the night train. The consignment, $31,500, was received and receipted for by the agent in charge and deposited in the vault, which was immediately closed and the combination turned partly around. He being the only man on duty, went about his other duties as usual incident to the arrival and departure of the night trains. Some time elapsed before he had occasion to look in the vault again, and when he did one of the bags containing $15,000 was missing. He immediately gave the alarm and a thorough search was made, but no clue was visible. So mysterious was the disappearance that many thought that the night man must know something about the matter but nothing has been found by detectives who were sent here to shadow him that would indicate that he had a hand in it. Among the people who were suspected by the company were William Paine, Jr., and Charles Searles, two young men of heretofore irreproachable character, and the express company kept detectives on their tracks nearly all summer, and while the young men knew it, they were not in the least affected by the presence of their shadows and seemed rather pleased or amused over the circumstances, and appeared to treat it as a huge joke. The young men worked in the city all summer, and sometime early in the fall Charlie Searles went to Missoula, Montana, to work on telegraph lines with F. B. Hubbard. Shortly afterwards Wm. Paine went there also, he having secured a job. When the work was done the young men took up claims at Frenchtown, twenty-five miles from Missoula, which are reported to be quite valuable for the timber that is on them, and they have been there ever since.

Various rumors are afloat and almost every possible contention of the facts have been resorted to. It is understood, however, that the evidence which has finally led to their arrest was obtained by a female detective who took a pine land claim adjoining theirs. It is also asserted that several transfers of property have been made by them or in which they have figured and that the records will be brought to show it. We have it from reliable authority that no part of the money has been found. It is also claimed by parties interested that events will happen in the next few days which will startle the community, by the arrest of one or two prominent men in this city. These are a few of the more reliable rumors which are afloat but none of them can be traced to any reliable source.

The news that the young men had been arrested was received in this city on Wednesday, and has been the one theme of gossip since that time, many people having never heard that they were suspected. What the outcome will be no one can tell, but the DISPATCH is loth to believe that they will be proven guilty of the crime. Certainly there has been nothing in their past lives that would lead any persons to believe that they were capable of it. Both young men belong to families of the highest respectability in the community, and their training has been such as would lead them to better acts than the one with which they are charged. Sheriff Spaulding and S. F. Alderman will leave to-night for Missoula with requisitions from Gov. Merriam to accompany them to this city, and they will arrive the latter part of next week.

After Timber Thieves.

A telegram from Little Falls states that Deputy United States Marshal J. A. Campbell, of St. Paul, is in that city enroute to Fort Ripley and points in Crow Wing and Mille Lacs counties to investigate alleged timber stealing from government lands.

The City Council.

The council met in regular session last Monday evening. The city attorney made a verbal report regarding the title to land in Seventh street south, and the matter was referred to committee.

The street committee was given further time to report on laying out certain alleys petitioned for. The police committee reported Policeman Johnson entitled to the five days' pay that has been in dispute. A motion was carried to pay the sum due as reported.

The electric light committee reported that Mrs. A. Robinson demanded $6 per month rental for ground occupied by electric light poles, and interest when rental was overdue. A motion was carried to pay her in full, and monthly hereafter.

A water main was ordered laid on Newwood street from Hartley to Water streets.

The matter of running the water at the corner of Sixth and Front streets into the sewer was referred to sewer committee with power to act.

A motion was carried to accept $15 to settle sidewalk tax at Congregational church, and to abate the balance that had been paid.

A motion was carried to have the crosswalks in the business portion of the city cleaned by the city prisoners. Council adjourned.

John S. Murphy.

The announcement of the appearance of this able actor in the character of "Shann Rhue," in the Irish comedy of that name, filled the opera house to its utmost capacity last night. It is a rousing good piece, laughter provoking, vivacious and full of repartee. It is useless to add that Mr. Murphy was good. In the delineation of Irish character he is inimitable, and as a vocalist possesses the great power and feeling. Mr. Murphy was well supported, especially so by the gentlemen who took the part of "Donovan" and the "Dominie."—Leavenworth, Kan., Press, Nov. 30, 1881.

This popular and well-known actor will appear in "Shann Rhue" at the opera house Wednesday evening, March 26th. Reserved seats on sale at usual place.

A Pleasant Event.

A very pleasant event was that of a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson. A few of their many friends assembled Friday evening, March 7th, to offer congratulations, it being Mrs. W.'s birthday. A very handsome antique clock extension table was delivered during the evening, and Mrs. Albert Forsyth, in a very pleasing address, presented the same to Mrs. Wilson. She was also the recipient of other handsome presents, among which figured conspicuously an elegant gold watch from her husband. The lady responded in a very appropriate manner. After lunch was served the guests departed at a very reasonable hour, wishing her many happy returns.

In our little town what interests one, interests all, so we are all getting a trifle impatient for the close of Lent, that a wedding which waits may take place. Not that weddings are so rare here, but because we like to see everybody as happy as possible.

Just Before Election.

A big streak of moral reform struck Brainerd the other day and the city officials ruled the "Bodegas," arrested the inmates, and brought them before Judge Fleming, who discharged the whole outfit. These fits generally attack Brainerd officials just before the city election.—Little Falls Transcript.

The Blair bill has been defeated in the senate.

The North Dakota legislature has adjourned and the people in that section feel easier.

Gov. MERIAM has gone to Utah, but the democratic press has not yet claimed that the visit has any political significance.

The municipal election at Little Falls occurred on Tuesday, there being two tickets—the regulars and the fusionists, the former headed by Hon. N. Richardson being successful. Both tickets were for license.

The supreme court of Wisconsin has decided that the Bible cannot be read in the public schools. The court held that reading the Bible in the public schools was forbidden by the constitution because it is a violation of the rights of conscience; because it is sectarian instruction, and because it compels parents to aid in the support of a place of public worship against their consent.

SWEDISH colonization will soon be an accomplished fact in Vermont, says an exchange. Mr. Valentine, the commissioner of agricultural and manufacturing interests, is just completing arrangements for settling a dozen families from Sweden in Vershire, a town about thirty miles from the capital of the state. The people of the town are said to be "thoroughly in earnest" regarding the proposed colonization scheme, and the citizens committee offer the new settlers a dozen farms of from 75 to 100 acres each at prices ranging from $2 to $5 per acre, and also agree to loan $25 in cash and furnish a cow for a stipulated period to each family. It is expected that about thirty Swedish families, numbering 150 persons, will be established in Vermont the coming spring. This experiment of repopulating the deserted farms on the New England hillside will be observed with deep and general interest throughout the country.

Declined With Thanks.

The Louisiana Lottery company sent to Gov. Francis, of New Orleans, on Monday, a check for $100,000 to be used in protecting the people against the inundation. The governor immediately returned the check with the following note: "On the eve of a session of the legislature, during which renewal or extension of your charter will be acted upon by a question vitally affecting the interests of this state, I have no right to place the people under obligations to your company, in however small a degree by my acceptance of a gratuity from it."

In True Western Style.

About 8 o'clock Thursday night P. Sarette was standing in the front part of his store alone when a man entered and pointed a revolver at him exclaiming, "put up your money or I'll shoot quick, quick." The man had disguised himself by tying a handkerchief over the upper portion of his face, leaving holes for his eyes. Mr. Sarette took the threat for a joke at first, but was quickly undeceived by having the revolver shoved under his nose. He led the bold robber to the back of the store where his safe was and opened that receptacle took out the cash drawer, which he purposely upset, spilling the money on the floor. There was about $23 in the money drawer and the robber got $18. A five dollar gold piece having rolled under the safe, which he picked up ready to go he backed out, keeping Sarette covered with the revolver and when near the door made a couple of quick bows and was away, going towards the Cloquet Lumber company's yard.—Cloquet Pine Knot.

The Shann Rhee.

The new opera house was filled last evening by a large and fashionable audience to witness the play of "Shann Rhee" and laugh at the keen wit and repartee of J. S. Murphy. There are many strong situations which add much to the success of the piece, but the one great attraction, the particular star of the evening, is the character of Larry Donovan, who keeps the audience almost continually in laughter, and Shann Rhee, "who came down thirty-two miles," is a faithful portrayal of the "Far down," and the Irish brogue is as natural as can be found in all Ireland. Mr. Murphy is a pleasing comedian; he gives his audience all the bright side of his character. His efforts are not strained, and his success is in the naturalness of his acting. He is never still while on the stage, but constantly indulging in some by play that directs attention, and causes the audience to forget the actor and care up on the original. Mr. Murphy has with him the one great incentive to success, a first-class company. Every actor seems well adapted to the part assigned, and they play to the star in a manner that commends itself to all. The "Shann Rhee" is a better piece than "Kerro Grow" and is destined to prove a great success.—Leavenworth Kan. Times, Nov. 30, 1881.

Who Will Find Them?

In the following short narrative, composed specially for the occasion, may be found the hidden names of a large number of well-known citizens of our city. Next week we will publish the same with these hidden names printed in italics. In the meantime, the person handing in the first correct list of names will receive the DISPATCH six months free:

One day last summer we went out to Mille Lacs—a lake which, when spoken of by true lovers of nature, is pronounced a very lovely body of water, indeed. Arriving there, we found the lake and its surroundings simply grand and beautiful. When the great work of nature, which had begun no man can tell. We found that the surface of the lake is wonderfully changeable—now slumbering peacefully as if its life had gone out—now almost instantly leaping into mad fury by a power so great that one stands in "wonder fixed" at its awfulness. We were not alone. We had not remained long gazing upon this wild picture of nature, when, from the west, falling heavily upon the low, ebbing waters, the rain was descending in torrents. The lake was foaming, the wind howled loudly, and we were reminded that we must linger so long. To defer rising to return was not safe. So, leaving this wild scene, we commenced a hasty walk, erect and apparently bold, though really somewhat timid. Our tackle, or to be a little barbarous in our language, our coal-black body-guard, followed us closely, carrying the demijohn. So near to us was he, in fact, that he made words were little else than our own. "I will permit no man to rest," said he, "until we are safe." We did not particularly admire his urging, but, rather than make enemies, for he was an important person in town, having been a negro vestryman, we began to reach off manfully, for, from afar, around the foot of the lake, the storm pressed hard withal. "The man who lingers here is lost," said he. In haste we quit the lake, took our cab, let Dick drive, and, with a kind of lubberish expression on our countenance, we drove home, where we arrived, next day, safe and sound, met by every body except Smith & Co. Hence our happiness. Although we forgot our little Mingo, a big Indian living at the lake, who told us, "The weather changes a time is truly a hero."

Change of Time and Faster Service to Chicago.

Past trains over "The North-Western Express." C. St. P. M. & O. Ry. now runs as follows:

Chicago Daylight Express.—The only 10-hour daylight train between the Twin Cities and Chicago, leaves Minneapolis at 7:00 a. m. St. Paul at 7:45 a. m. (Dinner in Dining Car) and arrives Chicago at 6:45 p. m.

This short-haul arrival in Chicago gives connection with more night trains out of Chicago to the East and South than trains of other lines. Chicago Vestibule Limited, in 12½ hours, leaves Minneapolis at 6:50 p. m. St. Paul at 7:30 p. m. and arrives Milwaukee at 7:25 a. m. Chicago at 9:40 a. m.

This is the only complete vestibule train between the Twin Cities and Chicago, and connects with all Fast Line trains leaving Chicago in the morning for the East and South. Trains of Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railways connect with both of these trains in St. Paul and Minneapolis union depots and through tickets over "The North-Western Line" on the basis of 1st-class and $4 second-class, Minneapolis and St. Paul to Chicago can be secured from the agent at your station if you specify "The North-Western Line" or for maps, folders, etc., address

WHY COUGH.

WHEN a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will relieve you? Try it. Keep it in the house. You are liable to have a cough at any time, and no other remedy is so effective as this world-famous medicine. No household, with young children, should be without it. Scores of lives are saved every year by its timely use.

Amelia B. Jenner, Northampton, Mass., writes: "Common knowledge impels me to acknowledge the great benefits I have derived from Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I had lost two dear children to whooping cough and consumption, and had the greatest fear of losing my only remaining daughter and son, as they were delicate. Happily, I find that by giving them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the first signs of trouble or in the early stages, they are relieved from danger, and are becoming robust, healthy children."

"It is further to be noted that a cold which, in spite of every known remedy, grew worse, so that the family physician declared it incurable, subsided in a few days, and the child recovered completely. Since then I have never been without it. I am now fifty years of age, weigh over 150 pounds, and attribute my good health to the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—G. W. Kneiser, Salem, N. J.

"Last winter I contracted a severe cold, which by repeated exposure, became quite obstinate. I was much troubled with hoarseness and bronchial irritation. After trying various remedies, without relief, I at last purchased a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. On taking this medicine, my cough ceased almost immediately, and I have been well ever since."—Rev. B. Kneiser, Secretary Holston Conference and P. E. of the Greenville District, N. E. C., Jonesboro, Tenn.

PASTOR'S REMEDY, An Infallible Remedy.

I am 27 years of age now; since I was 16 years old I was a sufferer of epilepsy. In January 1887, I was treated by one of the best physicians for five years, without relief. I then came to America and here I tried many so-called cures for my terrible disease, but I was so disappointed that I even gave up. But after all I was soon convinced that there is a real remedy which really cures the epilepsy. In the month of April I commenced to use Pastor's Remedy. The effect of which was so marvellous that only nine days after I had begun to use it, I was free from the disease. I have since used it and it has cured me of the disease. I have since used it and it has cured me of the disease. I have since used it and it has cured me of the disease.

For Prospectus for written of nervous diseases will be sent free in any address, and please specify the disease you are suffering from, and the name of the medicine you have used, and the name of the physician who has treated you.

St. Patrick's Day.

The entertainment given at the opera house on Monday evening by home talent was one of the most successful events, financially and otherwise, of the season. Long before the time for the opening of the evening's entertainment every seat in the spacious opera house was occupied, standing room below was filled and chairs were brought in to accommodate as many as possible. The address of Rev. Father Gleason, on the "Character of St. Patrick and the Irish People," was closely followed by the large audience, and was certainly an able effort. The gentleman is a very pleasant and convincing speaker and has the faculty of holding the attention of his hearers. The address was spoken very highly of by all. The drama "Waiting for the Verdict" followed, and it was presented in a manner highly pleasing to the audience and with credit to the parties who participated in the play. It would be impossible for us to speak of each character separately on account of space. The musical part of the program was fine and the singers were repeatedly encored. The amount realized out of the entertainment was something over $350.

The District Court.

Court opened in this city on Monday with Judge Mills on the bench. The entire week has been consumed in the trial of the Hefferson cases against the Northern Pacific company, and only one case besides those has been tried. The first case, which was by Patrick Hefferson for damages incident to the care and expenses of his son, who was rendered totally blind by an accident at the shops, and the jury assessed his damages at $3,000. The second case has been on trial the past two days, in which suit is brought for $50,000 by the guardian of the boy, and the case has gone to the jury.

The case against Joseph Tift, who was charged with receiving a quantity of stolen brass and copper, was the first tried and resulted in a verdict of not guilty.

The grand jury was in session only two days, the result of their work being three indictments, one against Peter Hanson for murder in the first degree, one against Geo. Reid, for assault in the second degree, and one against Malcolm McLaren for assault in the second degree.

Court will probably be adjourned to-morrow night until some time in April, unless some arrangement can be made by Judge Mills to remain and finish up the calendar which is quite lengthy.

Thieves and Thugs.

On Wednesday night W. J. & H. D. Powers' hardware store was entered by thieves who went through the stock of cutlery and revolvers, helping themselves to what they wanted in that line. The value of the stolen property was about $25.

Joe Wilson's grocery was burglarized on Thursday morning early, the thieves getting $1.05 from the till. They effected an entrance through a back window.

On Wednesday night an unsophisticated Swede was invited to take in and paint the town with three fellows and their steps were directed toward the "red lights" in the vicinity of the wagon bridge. After walking around awhile the fellow, according to his story, was unceremoniously assaulted and knocked insensible. When he came to his senses he found his pockets turned inside out and $4.25 which he remembered having was gone. He was also cut in two places on the face and one of the gashes required five stitches to bring it together. There is no clue to the parties who did the job.

Labor Meeting.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.

Charles Seales and Wm. Paine, Jr., held for the crime.

In April, 1888, the Northern Pacific Express company was robbed of $15,000, the money being taken from the company's safe in their office at the depot in this city. The money was part of the gold sent by the company to pay their employees in Brainerd, and arrived on the night train. The consignment, $31,500, was received and deposited in the vault, which was immediately closed and the combination turned partly around. He being the only man on duty, went about his other duties as usual incident to the arrival and departure of the night trains. Some time elapsed before he had occasion to look in the vault again, and when he did one of the bags containing $15,000 was missing. He immediately gave the alarm and a thorough search was made, but no clue was visible. So mysterious was the disappearance that many thought that the night man must know something about the matter but nothing has been found by detectives who were sent here to shadow him that would indicate that he had a hand in it. Among the people who were suspected by the company were William Paine, Jr., and Charles Seales, two young men of heretofore irreproachable character, and the express company kept detectives on their tracks nearly all summer, and while the young men knew it, they were not in the least affected by the presence of their shadowers and seemed rather pleased or amused over the circumstances, and appeared to treat it as a huge joke. The young men worked in the city all summer, and sometime early in the fall Charles Seales went to Missoula, Montana, to work on telegraph lines with F. B. Hubbard. Shortly afterwards Wm. Paine went there also, he having secured a job. When the work was done the young men took up claims at Frenchtown, twenty-five miles from Missoula, which are reported to be quite valuable for the timber that is on them, and they have been there ever since.

Various rumors are afloat and almost every possible contention of the facts have been resorted to. It is understood, however, that the evidence which has finally led to their arrest was obtained by a female detective who took a pine land claim adjoining theirs. It is also asserted that several transfers of property have been made by them or in which they have figured and that the records will be brought to show it. We have it from reliable authority that no part of the money has been found. It is also claimed by parties interested that events will happen in the next few days which will startle the community, by the arrest of one or two prominent men in this city. These are a few of the more reliable rumors which are afloat but none of them can be traced to any reliable source.

The news that the young men had been arrested was received in this city on Wednesday, and has been the one theme of gossip since that time, many people having never heard that they were suspected. What the outcome will be no one can tell, but the DISPATCH is both to believe that they will be proven guilty of the crime. Certainly there has been nothing in their past lives that would lead any persons to believe that they were capable of it. Both young men belong to families of the highest respectability in the community, and their training has been such as would lead them to better acts than the one with which they are charged. Sheriff Spalding and S. F. Alderman will leave to-night for Missoula with requisitions from Gov. Merriam to accompany them to this city, and they will arrive the latter part of next week.

The street committee was given further time to report on laying out certain alleys petitioned for.

The police committee reported Policeman Johnson entitled to the five days' pay that has been in dispute. A motion was carried to pay the sum due as reported.

The electric light committee reported that Mrs. A. Robinson demanded $6 per month for group, occupied by electric light poles, and interest when rental was overdue. A motion was carried to pay her in full, and monthly hereafter.

A water main was ordered laid on Norwood street from Hartley to Water streets.

The matter of running the water at the corner of Sixth and Front streets into the sewer was referred to sewer committee with power to act.

A motion was carried to accept $15 to settle sidewalk tax at Congregational church, and to abate the balance that had been paid.

A motion was carried to have the crosswalks in the business portion of the city cleaned by the city prisoners. Council adjourned.

John S. Murphy.

The announcement of the appearance of this able actor in the character of "Sham Rhue," in the Irish comedy of that name, filled the opera house to its utmost capacity last night. It is a rising good piece, longer, provoking, vivacious and full of repartee. It is useless to add that Mr. Murphy was good. In the delineation of Irish character he is inimitable, and as a vocalist possesses the great power and feeling. Mr. Murphy was well supported, especially so by the gentleman who took the part of "Donovan" and the "Domine" — Leavenworth, Kan. Press, Nov. 20, 1881.

This popular and well-known actor will appear in "Sham Rhue" at the opera house Wednesday evening, March 26th. Reserved seats on sale at usual place.

A Pleasant Event.

A very pleasant event was that of a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson. A few of their many friends assembled Friday evening, March 7th, to offer congratulations, it being Mrs. W.'s birthday. A very handsome antique oak extension table was delivered during the evening, and Mrs. Albert Forsyth, in a very pleasing address, presented the same to Mrs. Wilson. She was also the recipient of other handsome presents, among which figured conspicuously an elegant gold watch from her husband. The lady responded in a very appropriate manner. After lunch was served the guests departed at a very reasonable hour, wishing her many happy returns.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.

Charles Seales and Wm. Paine, Jr., Held for the Crime.

In April, 1889, the Northern Pacific Express company was robbed of $15,000, the money being taken from the company's safe in their office at the depot in this city. The money was part of the gold sent by the company to pay their employees in Brainerd, and arrived on the night train. The consignment, $31,500, was received and receipted for by the agent in charge and deposited in the vault, which was immediately closed and the combination turned partly around. He being the only man on duty, went about his other duties as usual incident to the arrival and departure of the night trains. Some time elapsed before he had occasion to look in the vault again, and when he did one of the bags containing $15,000 was missing. He immediately gave the alarm and a thorough search was made, but no clue was visible. So mysterious was the disappearance that many thought that the night man must know something about the matter but nothing has been found by detectives who were sent here to shadow him that would indicate that he had a hand in it. Among the people who were suspected by the company were William Paine, Jr., and Charles Seales, two young men of heretofore irreproachable character, and the express company kept detectives on their tracks nearly all summer, and while the young men knew it, they were not in the least affected by the presence of their shadows and seemed rather pleased or amused over the circumstances, and appeared to treat it as a huge joke. The young men worked in the city all summer, and sometime early in the fall Charles Seales went to Missoula, Montana, to work on telegraph lines with F. B. Hubbard. Shortly afterwards Wm. Paine went there also, he having secured a job. When the work was done the young men took up claims at Frenchtown, twenty-five miles from Missoula, which are reported to be quite valuable for the timber that is on them, and they have been there ever since.

Various rumors are afloat and almost every possible contention of the facts have been resorted to. It is understood, however, that the evidence which has finally led to their arrest was obtained by a female detective who took a pine land claim adjoining theirs. It is also asserted that several transfers of property have been made by them or in which they have figured and that the records will be brought to show it. We have it from reliable authority that no part of the money has been found. It is also claimed by parties interested that events will happen in the next few days which will startle the community, by the arrest of one or two prominent men in this city. These are a few of the more reliable rumors which are afloat but none of them can be traced to any reliable source.

The news that the young men had been arrested was received in this city on Wednesday, and has been the one theme of gossip since that time. Many people having never heard that they were suspected. What the outcome will be no one can tell, but the DISPATCH is loth to believe that they will be proven guilty of the crime. Certainly there has been nothing in their past lives that would lead any persons to believe that they were capable of it. Both young men belong to families of the highest respectability in the community, and their training has been such as would lead them to better acts than the one with which they are charged. Sheriff Spaulding and S. F. Alderman will leave to-night for Missoula with requisitions from Gov. Merriam to accompany them to this city, and they will arrive the latter part of next week.

John S. Murphy.

The announcement of the appearance of this able actor in the character of "Sam Rile" in the Irish comedy of that name, filled the opera house to its utmost capacity last night. It is a rousing good piece, laughter provoking, vivacious and full of repartee. It is useless to add that Mr. Murphy was good. In the delineation of Irish character he is inimitable, and as a vocalist possesses the great power and feeling. Mr. Murphy was well supported, especially so by the gentlemen who took the part of "Donovan" and the "Domine" — Leavenworth, Kan., Press, Nov. 30, 1881.

This popular and well-known actor will appear in "Sham Rile" at the opera house Wednesday evening, March 26th. Reserved seats on sale at usual price.

A Pleasant Event.

A very pleasant event was that of a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson. A few of their many friends assembled Friday evening, March 7th, to offer congratulations, it being Mrs. W.'s birthday. A very handsome antique oak extension table was delivered during the evening, and Mrs. Albert Forsyth, in a very pleasing address, presented the same to Mrs. Wilson. She was also the recipient of other handsome presents, among which figured conspicuously an elegant gold watch from her husband. The lady responded in a very appropriate manner. After lunch was served the guests departed at a very reasonable hour, wishing her many happy returns.
